Scripture Companion

This companion gathers the Scripture references used throughout Are We There Yet? without reproducing copyrighted translation text. Read each passage in your preferred Bible translation, then use the prompts to connect the text to the chapter's central themes.

1. READ

Read the passage in context, not only the quoted verse.

2. OBSERVE

Notice what the passage says about God, people, tension, promise, or response.

3. CONNECT

Ask how the text illuminates the chapter theme without forcing a connection.

4. RESPOND

Name one faithful response that fits the passage and your present season.

HOW THIS COMPANION IS ORGANIZED

- One chapter per page for quick reference.
- All Scripture references come from the existing Book 1 companion source.
- The first three references are highlighted as the chapter's anchor passages.
- The same four reading questions are preserved from the original resource to keep the study method consistent.

Read Scripture in literary and historical context. The companion is meant to support the book, not replace careful Bible reading or responsible teaching.
